In order to improve health outcomes in our communities, we must harness the power and potential of data analytics and collaborative partnerships. U.S. healthcare systems are expanding their focus to include the reduction of costs and improvements in healthcare quality while ensuring patient satisfaction and overall community health. Business intelligence is the essence of the next-generation health system, and innovative uses of analytics will drive better outcomes while lowering costs and identifying new approaches to healthcare delivery in an increasingly complex and competitive landscape.
SCHEDULE

7:30 – 8:00  Breakfast and Registration
8:00 – 8:45  Keynote Speaker
            Tony Slonim, MD, President and CEO, Renown Health
            Sponsored by LogiStream
8:45 – 9:00  Break
9:00 – 9:45  Vendor sponsored workshops
            1. JVION
            2. Microsoft

9:45 – 10:00 Break
10:00 – 10:45 Breakout sessions #1
            1. Driving Clinical Outcomes with Data
               Sponsored by PeraHealth
            2. Using Data to Improve Community Health
10:45 – 11:00 Break
11:00 – 11:45 Breakout sessions #2
            1. Improving Provider Well Being
               Sponsored by Evergreen Healthcare Partners
            1. Benefits and Challenges of Secure Healthcare Data Sharing
12:00 – 1:15 Lunch & Table Top topics
            Sponsored by Premier, Inc.
1:15 – 2:00  Breakout sessions #3
            1. Improving Patient Experience
               Sponsored by Modea
            2. Pathways for Healthcare Analytics Research Collaboration and Funding
2:00 – 2:15  Break
2:15 – 3:00  Breakout sessions #4
            1. Transformation in Data Analytics – What’s New on the Horizon?
               Sponsored by Nuance
            2. Bending the Cost Curve with Data